

Documentary Film Festival in Delhi from August 31

Like 4 Tweet 3

2

By NewsDesk | Friday, August 31st, 2012

Jeevika: Asia Livelihood Documentary Festival will be held from 31 August – 2 September, 2012 at

Animation Film Making

Learn latest techniques of Digital Animation Film Making with MAAC www.maacindia.com AdChoices

India Habitat Centre, New Delhi. The ninth edition of the festival will screen 18 documentary films, 13 of them by professionals and 5 by students.

Mumbai's night rat killers, life of primitive tribes, children of sex workers, seaweed collectors are some of the topics covered in these films. All Rise For Your Honour by Sumit Khanna, Bicycle Journey – A Story Unbelievable by Ashijit Ganguli, Breaking the Silence by Ishani K Dutta and Dilli by Rintu Thomas and Sushmit Ghosh are some of the films in the line-up.

The festival will also host discussions with acclaimed film makers like Supriyo Sen, Amlan Datta, Nandan Saxena and Anasuya Vaidya. Director, producer and screenwriter Subhash Ghai will give away the awards to the winners.

Entry is free on a first-come-first served basis. See here for the schedule of the festival.

Did you like reading this article?

Follow @dearcinema 9,434 followers
Like 6.7k

Get DearCinema in your Inbox

Subscribe to DearCinema Daily by email:

Or grab the RSS feed!

Related posts:

Dabangg Director teams up with Viacom18 for his next

Dev Anand's Hum Dono to screen at PVR Rare Film Club on Dec 8

Indian short film to compete at 34th Clermont-Ferrand International Short Film Festival

2

1 comments, add yours!

Add a comment...

Comment using...

Ardhendu Mukherjee

Asia Livelihood Documentary Festival 31st August - 2nd September 2012.

Reply · Like · Friday at 12:32am

Facebook social plugin

Our Google+ Page